[Tuthill alerts the Chapmans to a circular warning against the infamous con dealer George William Robinette, known to sell fakes, with whom the Chapmans had done business.]

Circular No. 1.

Issued by the American Society of Curio Collectors.

Warning! Prof. Dock Robinette, better known as G. W. Robinette, formerly of Flag Pond, Va., is now located at Kiask, Va.

The above named party is guilty of counterfeiting Indian relics and is totally unreliable.

Wm. Perry, Wakefield, R. I., Wm. Perry Arnold, Peacedale, R. I., and W. P. Arnold, Stonnington, Conn. THE THREE ARE ONE—HE IS TOTALLY UNRELIABLE AND IRRESPONSIBLE. We have positive proof for this statement.

to hand. and I Beg to say that it is a mistake about me not being broken up our Possessions in Scott Co Va was all sold for security Debt. to Clerk of Co or any Body will tell you so that knows the Fact. and as to selling Relics I Have sold a few if I had them I could not sell as it has got out that I made them which I deny. I do no such. I sold Warren K. Moor Head. I Believe the last I sold He is the author of "Prehistoric Implements and Fort Ancient." He said that they were perfectly satisfactory. now I will be glad to Redeem them while some may be modern I am satisfied that I let you have as genuine Relics as the world can afford I Bought them of Farmers in Tenn. & surely they must be Ancient I do not guarantee anything as I could not unless I knew the History from the Beginning I also let you have a Pipe that was said to have been found in Macon Co N.C. over 60 years ago that is what Mrs. Angel wrote me who I bought it of. If I had then back I would not try to sell them in the U.S. but there is a man in Liverpool Eng who will take them better for more.

I have not got money left to pay my tax I lack a little I certainly am broke sure as a god Rules alone. I have got some stuff not yet sold. & I will make you a proposition which if you can accept I will forward the things

I have a Flint Lock Pistol. that is very large about 22 in long walnut stock Brass Mount good condition. that was made in the days of Queen Ann and was in the hands of Gen Burgoyne and was captured from him by Geo Washington near where the town of TYRINGHAM MASS now stands while Burgoyne was on his way to Boston in the war. 1776 before his surrender. I did not aim ever to part with it I hold it as a very valuable thing. but I will give it to you. and pay charges on it it is nearby U.S. it and the stamps I let you have will surely settle for the Relics I to pay charges on the Relics.

I want it settled up. I know who my enemies are one man in your City got mad at me cause I sent him some stamps on afforall. I was not posted in stamp match they was sold to me for card Board proofs by a man in NY. This man I guess you know if I could think of his name I don't though just now. Give a man a bad name & he will be dead. let me know what you can do. Yours truly G.W. Robinette
